- Important Information
- Your employer cannot ask you or force you to opt out.
- If you are asked or forced to opt out, you can tell The Pensions Regulator – see www.thepensionsregulator.gov.uk
- If you change your mind, you will be able to opt back in by writing to your employer.
- If you stay opted out during your employment with ING Services Limited, you will be put back into the ING UK Pension Fund in around three years
- If you change your job, your new employer will normally put you back into pension saving straight away
- If you have another job, your other employer might also put you into pension saving, now or in the future. This notice only allows you to opt out of pension saving with ING Services Limited. A separate notice must be filled out and given to any other employer you work for, if you wish to opt out of that employer’s pension saving as well.

Declaration:

I wish to opt out of active membership of the ING UK Pension Fund

I understand that by opting out I will lose the right to pension contributions from ING Services Limited

I understand that if I continue to opt out, I may have a lower income when I retire
